

New Member Applicant Information Booklet

As a co-operative our members help us unlock new ideas, projects and opportunities. With almost 2000 members, mostly from the local area, Hepburn Energy is backed by a community of like-minded people wanting to make change.

Hepburn Energy is still open for new member shareholders to join our community enterprise.

Locals can buy in for a minimum of 100 shares and non-locals can join up with 1000 shares.

What it means to be a member of Hepburn Energy:

Member Benefits

As a Hepburn Energy Member, your investment is not only good for the planet but also good for you.

As a member you will receive:

- Member returns when financially prudent
- The Member Newsletter
- The ability to access our Energy Products

Member Responsibilities

All members of Hepburn Energy, as part owners of the Hepburn Energy Co-op, are responsible for their shareholding and have Active Member Responsibilities as shareholders. Members must comply with the Cooperative Rules and maintain an “active” membership. There are a number of ways that members can maintain their active membership, including purchasing one or more of our Energy Products and keeping a current email to receive our member newsletter.

As a shareholder at Hepburn Energy, you are responsible for the sale of your shares should you wish to do so and for keeping important details of your shareholding up to date so we can contact our members regarding important activities like our AGM, Annual Reports or dividends. We require at all times the following details to administer your holding:

- Email Address
- Bank Account Details
- TFN, TFN Exemption or ABN

If you would like to become a Hepburn Energy Member, it is your responsibility to read the Hepburn Energy Rules and Disclosure Statement to ensure that you can meet your Active Membership Requirements. These documents can be found on our website at www.hepburnenergy.coop/membership
